DOTHAN'S POPULATION: 1910, 3,647; 1900, 2,376; 1890, 1,010; 1880, 30,000. "FOR I HEARD THEM SAY, LET US GO TO DOTHAN."

VOLUME 8 DOTHAN, ALABAMA, TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 6, 1915 NUMBER

GERMANS VICTORS IN WESTERN ZONE ON 3-MILE FRONT

London, July 5.—The British steamer Anglo-Californian of 7,333 tons gross burden, bound from Montreal arrived at Queenstown today with a number of dead on board as the result of being shelled by a German submarine. Twelve men were killed on the Anglo-Californian, including the captain. Eight injured men were landed at Queenstown.

Paris, July 5.—The French war office this afternoon gave out the following:

"North of Arras two attempted enemy attacks, each preceded by a violent bombardment, were checked by us last night. One was directed particularly against our positions in front of Souchez. The Germans came out several times from their trenches, armed with grenades and bombs, but we compelled them to withdraw, leaving many dead. The other took place at 'The Labyrinth,' but it was stopped at once.

"Yesterday afternoon and evening the Germans assumed the offensive along a front of about three miles stretching from Fey-en-Haye to the Moselle. East of Fey-en-Haye, as well as in the western section of the forest of Le Petre along the front of two-thirds of a mile, they were successful after a violent bombardment in again gaining a footing in their old lines recently taken by us. In spite of the vigor of their action, however, they found it impossible to move beyond the lines.

"Further east, on a line running from La Croix-Des-Carmee to the village of Riept on the Moselle, a German attack resulted in complete failure and the enemy suffered very heavy losses.

"There is nothing of importance to report from the rest of the front."

Berlin Denies Report that War-ship is Sunk.

Berlin, July 5.—The Russian report regarding the destruction of a vessel of the Deutschland class is untrue, according to a semi-official statement issued here. It is also denied that the minelayer Albatross lowered the German flag before running ashore on Swedish territory. The Russians are said to have fired 1500 shots at the Albatross, of which only twenty-five hit. An eye-witness of the battle asserts that nearly the entire stern of one Russian warship was shot away.

THIRTY DAYS IN JAIL.

Having been convicted of illicit distilling when arraigned in the United States court, receiving a 30 days' sentence each, the following prisoners have been turned over to Warden Grady at the county jail: Bud Granger, Sidney McCullough, Thomas Swanson and Lewis Simmons.

Dollars Are Under Sher-A-Coca Crowns

This unique plan has been hit upon by the management of the company, as an inducement for those who have not tried this popular drink which is becoming better known in this section.

Certificates good for a dollar have been placed under the crown of some of the bottles, and somebody is going to make some money mighty easy. Who will the lucky ones be?

BOMB EXPLODES IN BASEMENT OF N. Y. POLICE HEADQUARTERS

New York, July 5.—A dynamite bomb was exploded tonight in an areaway outside the detective bureau at New York's police headquarters. A heavy door was blown ten feet and a number of windows were shattered, but no one was injured.

Five prisoners were locked in a cell twenty feet frim the place where the bomb was exploded and fragments of metal pierced the ceiling of their cell.

The police worked on the theory that a jail delivery had been attempted, but there was virtually nothing which led to a definite clue.

8-YEAR-OLD BOY DANCES AT FIDDLERS' CONVENTION

One very interesting feature of the big Fourth of July celebration was the old time flat-footed dancing of Coy Dixon, a son of W. F. Dixon. This little fellow is only eight years old, but he certainly knows how to dance, and was complimented with many nickels and dimes and praised by all who had the pleasure of seeing him.

Mrs. Ed Inge underwent an operation for appendicitis this morning at a local infirmary, and is reported as doing nicely.

LARGE COURT IN NOVEMBER

Unless the Legislature makes some changes in the date, the Circuit Court of Houston county, with Judge H. A. Pearce presiding, will be in session at Dothan, November 1, at which time no doubt a large number of cases will be on the docket for trial.

Aside from what cases may be docked between now and November there are some 88 cases carried over from the adjourned Summer term of the court, which will come up for disposition.

OFFICERS MEETING.

Many matters of church interest came up for discussion, after which Mrs. Fritter, with delightful hospitality, delighted her guests with "the cup that cheers, but not inebriates."

RESIGNATION OF MINISTER SULLIVAN IS REQUESTED

Washington, July 5.—James M. Sullivan, American minister to the Dominican republic, has in effect been asked to resign his post after an investigation by a commissioner, headed by Senator John D. Phelan, of California, and appointed by former Secretary Bryan.

Secretary Lansing, a few days ago, by instruction of President Wilson informed Mr. Sullivan the report was recommended that he be permitted to resign. The minister was given a week to consider the matter and his resignation is expected this week.

The Phelan report has not been made public, but it is understood to criticize Mr. Sullivan for indiscretions in the conduct of his office, though praising him for putting into effect reforms and having accomplished many things in the interest of the United States. It called particular attention to a letter written by Mr. Sullivan in which he referred disparingly to the people of San Domingo.

It is understood that the commission exonerated Mr. Sullivan of all charges affecting Mr. Sullivan of all charges affecting his integrity.

DOTHAN HAS SANE FIFTH

Best of Order Maintained at Fair Grounds and in Town.—Many Visitors Were in the City.

Independence Day was celebrated in Dothan and Houston county very quietly yesterday, the principal event being the program carried out at the fair grounds.

Hundreds of people, including many out of town visitors, went to the fair grounds in the afternoon for the fiddlers' convention, racing and dancing.

The fire works display attracted a great deal of attention, as did the other features of the day.

The dance was held in the Merchants Building, as was the fiddlers' convention, and both round and square dances were executed. Music was furnished by the Headland band. Med Austin of Headland won the first prize, $10, in the fiddlers' contest.

Only one arrest during the day was reported from the Sheriff's office, that of a man four miles southwest of town, charged with public drunkenness and abusive language.

No arrests were reported by the police, the best of order prevailing at the fair grounds and in town.

'ROT GUT' LIQUOR IS SCORED BY JUDGE CLAYTON

Judge Henry D. Clayton, in his charge to the jury yesterday, said among other things, that he would like to get hold of dealers in rot gut liquor. He indicated clearly that he has no patience with "blind tiger" operators.

Another important announcement is that Judge Clayton has decided to dispense with the suspended sentence, and hereafter defendants receiving sentences will go to jail. The Judge paid his respects to hyphenated Americans, saying that all ought to be true Americans, if we live in this country.

Throughout the different hearings, at times, Judge Clayton makes a remark, which shows his attitude towards "blind tigers." This morning the Judge was lecturing a defendant, who had been acquitted of making liquor for lack of evidence, yet in which the circumstances were not altogether in favor of the defendant. In substance Judge Clayton said: "There seems to have been a pretty intimate association between you and that still. Don't make liquor or buy it from blind tigers." The Judge occasionally explains to a defendant that the law allows one the privilege of ordering and keeping so much whiskey in one's possession for legal uses.

Several were convicted of illicit distilling today, while others were discharged.

GETS MEDAL FOR BRAVERY

For rescuing Benjamin Grant, Jr., from a narrow well two years ago, Henry Matthews, age about 12, has received a Carnegie Hero Medal, which is about two inches in diameter, made of Bronze and weighs nearly half a pound.

One side of the medal shows the head of Andrew Carnegie, who founded the institution, while the other side contains these words: "Greater love hath no man than this, That he lay down his lift for his friends."

The inscription on the medal is: "Awarded to Henry T. Matthews, who saved Benjamin J. Grant, Jr., from suffocation, Dothan, Ala., March 24, 1912." Besides this medal, $2,000 has been appropriated for the education of Henry.

JURY SAYS MEN FOUND IN RIVER WERE MURDERED

West Point, Ga., July 5.—The coroner's jury empannelled to investigate the triple tragedy of Blanton's Ferry today returned a verdict that Max and J. Epps Melton and John Leake "came to their deaths at the hands of persons unknown."

The verdict was rendered without the hearing of any evidence, it being explained that no witnesses were examined because of the failure of the attorneys for the state and relatives of the dead men to appear for the inquest.

The bodies of the three men were found in the Chattahoochee river and each bore marks of violence. No arrests have been made.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Minister Takes Part Of Pay In Peanuts

(By Emmet A. Jones.)

A minister of the Gospel takes advantage of the services offered by the Department of Agriculture in its Markets Bureau. This minister writes the Department that because of the presence of the boll weevil in his section, he has agreed to take a part of his salary in peanuts, and requests the Bureau to assist him in selling these ecclesiastic peanuts.

The contribution is estimated to aggregate 1,500 bushels, and the members of his congregation planted Spanish peanuts, which was an excellent idea since the minister can offer for sale a standard lot of peanuts.

This minister believes strongly in the doctrine that the Lord helps those who help themselves, and in addition to the peanuts that he has to dispose of, he advises the Bureau of Markets that he has a fig crop that looks unusually promising, and he will in all probability, have a very large quantity of fig preserves that he wishes to sell through the Markets Bureau.

It gives this office peculiar pleasure to assist, not only the ministers that request the services of this bureau, but any citizens of Alabama who will make their wishes known will receive aid in marketing their products.

ONLY ONE ARREST

The best of order was maintained here yesterday, the police making but one arrest, Officer Horace Daugherty arrested Henry Tucker, negro, charged with stealing meat from a negro named Morris. When arraigned in Mayor's court today, Tucker was fined $25.

LINER IS ESCORTED FROM WAR ZONE BY ENGLISH WARSHIPS

New York, July 5.—The American Line steamer St. Louis arrived here to day from Liverpool. She was escorted down the English channel by two torpedo boat destroyers.

Aboard the St. Louis was D. A. Thomas, the British coal magnate, who comes to supervise the production in America of war munitions for the Allies.

The destroyers remained with the St. Louis two days and nights, it was said, and did not leave her until the war zone was cleared.

Mr. Thomas was met at the pier by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British Ambassador, and Willard D. Straight, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. One of Mr. Morgan's yachts was at the pier ready to take Mr. Thomas and his party aboard.

"I have come to America prepared for an indefinite stay," Mr. Thomas said. "I may stay until the end of the war, and I don't know how long that will be. It looks as if the war might last a long time. But, no matter how long it lasts, there can be but one ending—Germany must be defeated.

"My business in the United States and Canada is to co-operate with Mr. Morgan's firms in Canada in the purchase of war munitions for Britain. In this connection I want to say that there has been no criticism of the manner in which Mr. Morgan has fulfilled his contracts. What criticism there has been was chiefly in Canada, and went to the effect that Canada had not been favored so much in the award of contracts as the United States."

Mr. Thomas said he did not care to comment on the latter subject. His immediate plans he added, were not yet ripe for publication, but embraced a trip to Canada within the near future.

News of the attempt to assassinate J. P. Morgan had been received aboard the ship.

"It gave us all a feeling of nervousness," Mr. Thomas said.

Innovations in Church Work.

Savannah News.

When the members of the Baptist church at Jackson, Ga., decided to equip their new building with a swimming pool, a gymnasium and a room for Boy Scouts, they took a step that has attracted a great deal of attention throughout the state and that has apparently been generally approved. Commenting upon it the Monroe Advertiser said, "If more of the churches of the state would follow this excellent lead it would mean much for the future religious life of this country." And the Moultrie Observer said, "The church that denies its members the privilege of joining in amusements with the ungodly without furnishing recreation and amusements that are innocent and wholesome is lessening its chance to get the young people and hold them."

Just where the line should be drawn between the legitimate work of the churches and worldly work has been a cause of disputs for a very long time, and likely will continue to be so to the end of time, but there is evidence aplenty that gradually church work is being made to include many features that fifty years ago were far outside the line. Within the memory of living persons many congregations were shocked by a proposal that they install a piano in the place of the old foot-power organ, and held up their hands in amazement at the suggestion that the fiddle, that instrument that sets the feet to patting, should be called to duty of helping out the church choir. And now many churches have full orchestras, with brass wind instruments aiding the tinkling cymbal and the plaintive violin.

Whether or not it be because of man's perverseness, he demands entertainment. Many persons in the old days—and perhaps a few yet do so—found positive pleasure in the knowledge that they took no amusement and that their congregation was content to worship God and serve humanity by limiting the activties of their church to sermons, prayers and songs without the aid of musical instruments. But the great majority of congregations now are not satisfied to confine their church work within these limits.

The innovations made by the Jackson church are specially of interest because it usually is the big city church that makes them, and but seldom that in the smaller city. Has Jackson set an example that will be followed by scores of churches in the small cities, the towns and the rural sections of Georgia? And if they do follow it, will there be a very large increase in church membership and attendance, and a consequent decrease in the number of stories of boys going wrong and finding their amusements in forbidden places?

THE BEST

is the CHEAPEST

How often you hear that said about shoes, or clothes, or food.

It's much more true when applied to drugs and drug-store merchandise—on most of which far more vital things depend than mere good looks or pleasure.

Did you ever think of that? When health—perhaps life itself—is in question, the best is not only the cheapest—it's the SAFEST.

You always get THE BEST from us—and it's always the cheapest too, because it always gives the BEST POSSIBLE RESULTS.

And it costs you no more—usually less—than elsewhere.

Dothan Loses Two Games To 'Moguls'

Waycross, Ga., July 5.—Fast work in tight places gave Vaiden the longest game of the Flag season Monday morning, when Waycross defeated Dothan, 4 to 3, in sixteen innings. Vaiden fanned fourteen. Hodge was the sufferer by reason of a substitute catcher. Stewart's base running was a feature, while a bare-handed catch of Caldwell's drive to deep center was the fielding feature. Vaiden was stronger towards the close than when the game started.

TALKS ON BIBLE; UNDER DEAD

Lecturer at Brooklyn Rapture While Saying "Pray to Jesus for Anything You Want."

Cornelius D. Weaver, lawyer, of 342 Fifty-sixth street, Brooklyn, dropped dead when addressing a meeting at the Mariners' temple. He had been quoting and lecturing on Biblical texts before an audience of forty or fifty persons, mostly boys and young men.

He stopped suddenly and fell from the platform to the floor just in front of the chairs. The boys picked him up and heard him say: "Pray to Jesus for anything you want."

A policeman was called, and he summoned an ambulance from the Hudson Street hospital. Doctor Slater responded, but found that Mr. Weaver had died almost instantly. Heart disease was the cause.

INBREEDING CANCER CAUSE.

The study of a number of human families has borne out the results obtained from the laboratory work with mice, and indicates that resistance to cancer is a positive (dominant) trait and that nonresistance appears in the children only when both parents belong to a nonresistant race. And this result is commonest, writes Charles B. Davenport in the Popular Science Monthly, where cousin marriages are commonest, because that makes it probable that if one parent belongs to a cancer race the other—the cousin—will belong to the same cancer race. In rural Maine cousin marriages are extremely frequent, especially in the islands off the coast, and here we have the conditions for the result—the high incidence of numbers of the cancer race in an inbred community.

TOWNS THAT RESIST FLAMES

Structures in Europe Are Hard to Destroy, Even When Work Is Prosecuted With Energy.

The cities and towns of Belgium and northern France do not burn easily. This reflection must have come to nearly everybody who follows the news from the main battle region of western Europe. Cities and villages that have been frequently under bombardment by larger cannon and faster firing cannon and greater numbers of cannon than have ever before been used in war, survive though breached and battered, but they do not burn. In some cities whole districts have been crushed and crumbled by artillery fire, but flames started in a hundred different spots have not swept the place off the map. Most American towns, if subjected to such an ordeal, would be but a pile of cinders, a black scar on the landscape.

Where villages have been burned in the western fighting area, it has been necessary, so say the accounts, to set fire to the place house by house. The interior woodwork goes up in flames, but stout stone or brick walls, tiled roofs and other things have prevented the spread of the flames from house to house and from quarter to quarter. There is a lesson for America in the comparatively noninflammable towns of Europe.

ITALIANS LIKED IN IRELAND

Towards the end of the eighteenth century the resident noblemen of Ireland spent a large amount of money in decorating their mansions—a necessary outlay at a time when there was a regular Dublin season, and when the Irish country gentleman had his seat in either the Irish house of lords or the Irish house of commons. They were especially anxious to give beautiful interiors to their mansions, which were stately though rather severe, and they invited to Dublin a number of Italian workmen, who might bring to the humid climate of Ireland something of the grace, the joy and sunshine of the South.

Thus there grew up in Dublin for some years a small colony of Italian decorators. The identity in religion between Italians and Irish may perhaps explain why the Italian exile has been always something of a figure in Dublin life. He has always been represented by the beautiful boy that hawks the statuettes of the saints and the other figures of the New Testament which Irish families so dearly love to have among their household possessions and ornaments.

ANCIENTS HELD FLY IN AWE.

The fly is recognized as likely to be one of the deadliest combatants of the coming summer, unless adequate precautions are taken against it, as Britain, France and Germany all intend to do. One is reminded of the awe in which the ancients held the fly. Beelzebub, the lord of flies, was the equivalent of sundry such divinities, such as Zeus Apomuios (driver away of flies) and Hercules Muiagros (fly catcher). Beelzebub also was no doubt honored as an averter of the nuisance. But the fly was almost certainly detested in those old days not so much as a disease carrier as on account of its direct worry. One of the prettiest pictures in Homer is that of the mother brushing away the flies from the face of her babe.

In fact we heard numerous persons dilating on the extreme warmth when they entered the sanctorum. We are willing to believe that it was hot, but we know one thing—it was not hot here. We think that a meat shop should be kept cool in the summer and we put our thoughts into action, as those big fans will testify. Wade's Weekly Letter

By J. A. WADE, Commissioner of Agricul. and Indus. of Ala.

The word "Diversification" has been the slogan for Alabama for nearly a year. No other word in the English language has been so freely discussed and agitated. Every man, woman and child in Alabama has either read about it or heard it discussed either publicly or privately, yet it is surprising how many people misconstrue the true meaning. We meet people every day who conceive it as meaning gardening or vegetable production on an extensive scale.

Diversified farming simply means the production of many kinds of products, animals, cereals and staples as well as vegetable crops. It simply means getting away from specializing on a large acreage in cotton and a few small patches of corn solely as the basis of the annual income with which to pay back borrowed money, store accounts including mules, meat, corn, hay and dry-goods purchased on credit. It means raising the mules, meats corn, hay and vegetables on your own farm and a surplus to sell with which to keep the dry goods bill paid. Diversification does not mean "leave cotton entirely out," but it does mean to quit making it your sole dependence. It means to grow some cotton, making large yield on a few acres and avoid owing the value of it before it is gathered. If you can get by with a few bales of cotton as clear profit, it will come mighty handy in buying a home, repairing or furnishing the home or purchasing new wagons, farm machinery, automobiles and other necessities and luxuries of life that are often obtained with borrowed money or deferred payments.

Buying on credit is a form of gambling when one agrees to pay from that which he is yet to produce. It is taking chances, the success of which depends upon health, labor, seasons and the uncertainty of marketing conditions. We all know these things but so great has been our habit of indulgence that we are resolved to make it an individual matter. The time has come when the man who wishes to show his wisdom will make it an individual matter of his own regardless of the customary habits of his neighbors. This is a matter that cannot be accomplished in a day or a month, but can be done within a year or two with persistent efforts, economy and determination.

Not only have communities become interested in diversification, but the necessity of it has made an impression on every state government of the United States. More than a dozen states and the United States have inaugurated Market Bureaus for the purpose of creating and encouraging a wider range of marketing.

The National Department of Commerce has recently issued a statement showing that the balance of trade in favor of the United States for the fiscal year just closed, to be one billion dollars which is forty per cent greater than any previous year in our history of dealings with foreign nations. How much of this great balance has come to Alabama? One has only to look about him and see the financial stringency affecting our people to convince him that Alabama has had less than her usual share of the balance of trade and absolutely none of the wonderful increase. The reason for this condition is that Alabama had only cotton for sale and the foreign trade demanded something else and Alabama could not "deliver the goods." Diversified farming, organized marketing and less extravagance in credit is the remedy. Men of Alabama, how long will we talk "Diversification" before we get down to the practice of the real thing? The question is up to you (Mr. Reader), not the other fellow.

HORTICULTURISTS TO MEET

The twelfth annual meeting of the Alabama State Horticultural Society, which is expected to be one of the best in the history of the organization, will be held in Montgomery, Ala., July 21 and 22. The meeting will be of great interest to all interested in any phase of horticulture.

A number of excellent speakers will be present to give practical talks on the different horticultural subjects.

Montgomery is centrally located and every person interested in fruit growing or trucking should attend.

A full program of the meeting will shortly appear in the various papers of the state.

Exhibits of various fruits and vegetables will be shown in connection with the meeting, and premiums will be awarded for the best products.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

The moment you apply bold-sulphur to an itching or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a renowned dermatologist.

This remarkable sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For many years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its healing, parasite-destroying properties and nothing has ever been found to take its place in relieving irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet in every instance it immediately subdues the itching irritation and heals the Eczema right away and it is often years later before any eruption again manifests itself.

Any good druggist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur, which should be applied to the affected parts like the ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded in very obstinate, particularly when the Eczema is complicated with excessive itching.

IT WAS A LOVELY SUNDAY

Stimville's polite agent leaned against a Bangitt unbreakable trunk (adv.) and regarded expressionlessly the gentleman who was waiting for a train. For two hours and thirteen minutes by his cheap but dependable Beerbury watch (adv.) he had been expressionlessly regarding the same gentleman as he paced impatiently and every now and then looked either at his pocket timetable or his gold Elbanger timepiece (adv.).

Finally Wangheaver Wobbits (for such was the impatient gentleman's name) strode over to the polite station agent. Yes, it was the famous facetious Wangheaver Wobbits, whose killing remarks had been the life of so many dinner parties.

"My man," said Wobbits in his best manner, "is this a railroad station or a perpetually endowed waiting room?"

"It's a railroad station, sir," answered the polite station agent.

"Well, then, do the trains run on tracks or speculation?" demanded Wobbits.

"On tracks, sir," replied the polite station agent.

"Well, then, how is it that I've been waiting here ever since two o'clock for the 2:13 train, and it's now 4:15, and no train yet. Take a look at this timetable and at this watch, please, and tell me why?"

The polite station agent looked as requested and then said softly, "Because that's a weekday timetable, sir."

It was a lovely Sunday.—Indianapolis Star.

THE KAISER'S HANDWRITING.

The favored few with whom the German emperor deigns to correspond find his writing almost, and sometimes wholly, undecipherable. The kaiser's is what is known in boys' schools as "large hand," and the letters are formed nearly perpendicularly.

Since his memorable visits to England in 1891 and 1907, says the London Standard, many of his missives have found their way to London, to Lowther castle, and to other parts of the country. That the emperor has a remarkable command of our language was seen by his long letter to the late Lord Tweedmouth, which was recently made public. It contained only a very few minor faults in spelling and in the construction of sentences.

Spend the Night Party—

Misses Nell and Christine Reid entertained six of their friends at a very delightful spend-the-night party on Monday evening.

After supper eight young men were invited to join the party in the game of Rook, which held the attention of the merry crowd until a late hour.

Delicious punch, cream and cake was served during the evening.

The players included: Miss Mary Jeter, Miss Ray Strickland, Miss Mary Jim Young, Miss Lucile Sharp, Miss Lillie Mae Jones, Mr. Lewis Conquitt of Macon, Ga., Mr. Herman Jones, Mr. Marion Merritt, Mr. Horton Lisenby, Mr. Alex Cureton, Mr. Agnew Stapleton, and Mr. Ben Clendinen.

Mr. Lewis Colquitt of Macon, Ga., is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. S. A. Jeter.

Mrs. Will Ray of Pensacola, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Jeter.

The Coming of the Low-Necked Shirts for Men—

We knew that it was coming, but that it should have descended upon us with all the suddenness of an april thunder storm—well, it makes it just a little harder to reconcile circumstances, and man's position. However, far be it from us to censure. We're for comfort, first, last and all the time, and if any man possesses the natural fortitude to appear in public wearing a low necked shirt waist with a six by eight collar pointing east and west and then east again, why, we're for him. It shows progress, and is right in line with the forward movement, says the Birmingham Ledger.

The sport shirt (just why it should be called a sport shirt, nobody knows unless it is because it is worn to dances, to churches and everywhere else except on the golf links and tennis court) has made its appearance in Birmingham (and also in Mobile, the boys of the Broad Street Tennis Club wearing the sport shirts to a dance last week), and many, many men (we refuse to be interrupted by insinuations(have asserted their rights by appearing in public thus adorned. Well, it's all right; we like it, and we think of the multitudinous remarks that have been made regarding women's rather extreme dress, we must agree with Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, who said, "Verily, man's consistency consists in his inconsistency.—Atlanta Journal.

Barr-Mary—

The following account of the marriage of Miss Kate Barr to Mr. Sebastian Mary taken from the Troy Messenger will be read with interest by a host of friends of the bride here where she was a teacher for the past two years in the City Schools. She is a bright and attractive young woman and is very popular here:

"At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Miss Kate Barr, one of Troy's most lovely girls, became the bride of Mr. Sebastian E. Mary, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The ceremony took place at the Barr home on Elm street, only the immediate family and a few girl friends of the bride being present.

The parlor in which the ceremony took place was beautifully adorned in a color scheme of white and green, Shasta daisies and luxurious pot plants combining in the splendid effects.

"With Mrs. Reid Lancaster playing the piano accompaniment, Mrs. Walter Walters sang sweetly "Because." The bridal party entered the parlor to the time-honored strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, little Miss Elizabeth Barr, niece of the bride and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barr, bearing the two rings for the double ring ceremony, entering before the bride and groom. The little ring bearer was attired in a beautiful dress of white lingerie and lace and carried a large white lily.

"The bride was becomingly attired in a blue taffeta coat suit, with hat, gloves and shoes to match. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The ceremony was spoken impressively by Rev. Father Gannon, of Montgomery.

"Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mary left for New Orleans, where they will spend several days, and thence they will visit the parents and relatives of the groom at Baton Rouge. They will return to Montgomery to reside after August 1st.

"The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mollie Barr, and is an attractive young woman of the blonde type. She is a graduate of the State Normal College, and by her congenial disposition has won a large circle of friends. The groom is of a prominent Louisiana family. He is a specialist in electrical matters. He was for two years in the great electrical works at Lynn, Mass. He now represents a large electrical supply house of New Orleans, having Alabama, West Florida and a portion of Mississippi as his territory.

"At the Gay-Teague Hotel in Montgomery tonight a dinner party will be given Mr. and Mrs. Mary, there being present: Mr. and Mrs. Mary, Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Wm. Selby, Miss Louise Clendinen of Dothan, Mr. Walter Barr, and Miss Ethel Williams."

"Throw out the Life Line."—Weak kidneys need help.

Will you help them?

Dothan testimony proves their worth.

E. S. Keel, carpenter, Commerce street, Dothan, says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for nearly four years and they have always done me a great deal of good. My back has given me a lot of trouble and often the kidney secretions were highly colored and pained in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills are good and I am oly too glad to tell others what they have done for me."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Keel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 36

COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
